

Applicant's Commitment to Attend and Participate in Program and International Immersion

Presence and active participation are critical components of the Global Leadership Fellows program, which is designed to provide in-depth learning, skill-building, and networking opportunities. Attendance at all events is mandatory.

By signing this agreement, I acknowledge the scheduled dates and commit to my presence and active participation for the program days, Master Classes, scheduled activities, events, and the International Immersion experience. I also accept responsibility for the non-refundable $300 participation fee.

I acknowledge and understand all terms and conditions of the Global Leadership Fellows Program, including eligible expenses associated with the travel grant. I accept responsibility for expenses excluded from the published schedule and itinerary.

Furthermore, I affirm that I have read and understood the attached exhibits and all related documents.
